Fund Drive

The International Association of Firefighters, Local 1218 will hold a variety show at the Monterey Fairgrounds on February 12 and 13.

The money derived from the sale of tickets is used to purchase Christmas Baskets and for the Firefighters "Widows and Orphans Fund."

Seaside residents are urged by the Firefighters to help in this worthwhile drive for funds.

Program Is This Weekend

Carmel Mission Basilica will be the scene of Monterey Peninsula Choral Society's ninth annual Christmas concert on this Saturday and Sunday, December 11 and 12, at 8 p.m.

Maestro Haymo Taeuber conducts the Choral Society which, together with Monterey County Symphony Chamber Orchestra, will perform in the beautiful Mission Sanctuary.

The major work of the program is Mozart's "Vesperae Solennes de Confessore" K. 339, with soloists Norma Jean Hodges as soprano, Betty Jane Johnson, contralto, James Hull, tenor and Robert Armstrong, bass.

The note soloist, Phyllis Schlomov, will perform "Concerto for Harp and Strings" in B-flat major, Op. 4, No. 6, by Felix Mendelssohn. Miss Schlomovitz recently won acclaim for her performance with Ray Fabrizio, flutist, in the November concert of Monterey County Symphony Orchestra.

A highlight of the concerts will be the lovely Austrian Christmas carols which Maestro Taeuber arranges especially for the Choral Society.

Tickets at $2.50 may be purchased at Abinate's in Monterey, at Carmel Music, at the Symphony office in Sunset Cultural Center, Carmel and at recreation offices on military posts.

Renewals Are Mailed

California's Department of Motor Vehicles is now mailing registration renewal notices to the owners of ten million automobiles, two million trucks, 1.3 million trailers, 560,000 motorcycles and half a million boats.

Robert C. Cozens, Director of Motor Vehicles, has this advice for recipients of renewal statements: "If the statement is correct, it can be mailed to DMV's local or Sacramento office with a check or bank draft in the exact amount of the billing. The sticker will be mailed to you."

Monterey McDonald's to Open

Next Tuesday, December 14, McDonald's will open a new outlet in Monterey. The Grand Opening will take place at 11 a.m. when Mayor Al Madden officiates at the traditional ribbon cutting ceremony. Many city officials and businessmen will also be attending the ceremony. The new McDonald's is located at 610 Del Monte Boulevard, between El Estero and Cortez. It represents an investment in land, building and equipment which is valued in excess of $500,000. There will be ten serving lines to serve the public. The facility will employ 60 persons.

Fred Sandeman, owner-operator of the new Monterey restaurant, is also owner of the McDonald's located in Seaside on Fremont Boulevard.

In announcing the grand opening of his new place, Sandeman said that the new store "will relieve the pressure from our Seaside outlet. Last Saturday, we had our largest volume in Seaside since we opened. We have been using seven tons of meat per month and consume over 400 dozen buns every day. We have our bakers add 13 percent sugar to our buns so that when they are toasted they are slick and do not get soggy." "McDonald's beef is all choice steer made from 85 percent utility Chuck and 15 percent Naval Plate. Our equipment is all specially designed for use in McDonald's exclusively and we hold many patents," Sandeman concluded.

The new McDonald's store represents the latest in design and efficiency in the entire chain.

Choirs Will Perform

It will be a busy holiday season this year for Monterey and Seaside High School vocal groups.

Seaside High School's Chamber Choir, directed by Richard Sheere, will perform today (Thursday) at 1:20 p.m. at the Naval Post Graduate Seaside

Sale Will Benefit Free Clinic

This Saturday, December 11 from 10 to 4, in the Cut Flower Building at the Monterey County Fair Grounds, friends of HARAMBEE FREE CLINIC will gather from Carmel, Monterey, Pacific Grove and Seaside to sponsor a rummage sale.

Students of Monterey Peninsula College, founders of the clinic, and others attending the college, are supporting HARAMBEE - which means, in Swahili dialect, "Let's pull together." Five days a week, from 8:30 to 6 and on Saturdays, 8:30 until noon, the clinic at 1186 Broadway is open for referral services toward medical, dental and preventive health-care.

Within Seaside itself, there are no medical facilities such as hospitals or walk-in clinics, nor is there a drug detoxification center, although the largest concentration of need in this area of addiction is found within this city, especially among minority persons of all races.

The Rummage Sale is one of many efforts on the part of students and friends to raise money for a more adequate health center.

Neighbors from anywhere in the Peninsula, who wish to donate time and service as well as items for sale are asked to telephone 394-7721. Pickup service can be arranged, although it will be especially appreciated if donors visit the clinic and become acquainted with its needs.

Residents Are Upset With Harbor Project

A number of Peninsula citizens have signed a statement of concern over the proposed Monterey Bay Harbor Project. Here is their statement:

News stories of the past weeks indicate rather clearly that the city of Monterey is strongly committed to a massive harbor expansion program. This project, estimated to cost at a minimum $25 million, will greatly affect the city and indeed, the entire Monterey Peninsula. Therefore all aspects of the plan should be carefully examined.

The present plan calls for massive earth fills (moles) in the bay to accommodate four times as many craft as are presently berthed, as well as restaurants, motels and stores. In addition, two large breakwaters would be constructed to enclose the inner harbor mole development.

We are particularly concerned about several aspects of the project. It is our understanding that there is a possibility of paving the city's public beach for creation of a parking lot. We have concern that there will be serious pollution from boats and the public and that the state owned beach enclosed by the project will become muddied and unfit for use.

Additionally, the more than 1700 vessels using the harbor might produce major problems in traffic, air pollution and policing, with impact outside the city of Monterey.

It is also felt that the public has not been given sufficient assurances that the project is financially sound and of short as well as long term benefit. We feel the public should be given the opportunity to discuss financial aspects of the project including a possible $4 million state grant, a $6 million state loan and their possible effect on city property taxes. A comparison should be made of the project's benefit to the entire Peninsula versus the economic and physical costs incurred.

In the public interest the undersigned individuals and organizations call on the city of Monterey to consider further the proposed plan in light of the Harbor Project's impact on the character of the city and Peninsula. Although this project has been discussed in past years at City Council meetings we do not feel that those meetings have sufficiently provided information or an opportunity for public discussion.

The Harbor Project is old, while many of Monterey's citizens are new to the area. This consideration, added to a new environmental awareness on the part of the public prompts us to ask the City Council not to proceed until full, frank and open discussions on the project are held. These discussions should take into account the needs and desires of the City and community, the testimony of scientists, and officials and the general public and alternatives to the present plan.

Citizens signing the statement are:

Joyce S. Stevens, Conservation Committee; American Institute of Architect, Monterey Bay Chapter; Fredrich Bracher, Chairman, Conservation Committee, Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society; Nan Bomberger, President, American Association of University Women, Monterey Peninsula Branch; Judson E. Vanderveer, Executive Committee, Friends of the Sea Otter; Les Strnad, Director of Environmental Quality, Associated Students of the Monterey Peninsula College; Marla Martin, President, Environmental Action Committee, Monterey Peninsula College; Ron Bostwick, Chairman Del Monte Beach Property Owners Action Committee; Alvin F. Andrus, President, Fisherman's Flats Area Owners and Residents Association; Charles B. Kramer, Chairman, Citizen's Committee for Monterey Beach; Bruce Moffatt, President, Sierra Club High School Group, Ventana Chapter; Mrs. Tom Houston, Chairman, Carmel Area Coalition; Francis Palms, Architect; Dr. and Mrs. Talcott Bates; Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Reed and Harold Shapiro.

Seaside Ripples

A. E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

I had a very interesting experience the other evening. I had the opportunity to appear on Dick Bragg's radio show, "Feedback" on KIDD. I had never appeared live before on a radio show, although I have spoken several times on tape. It was quite relaxed. Dick is very informal and my wife, Jeannie, was able to sit in on the promise from Dick that he wouldn't ask her any questions. He didn't. It's quite surprising to have someone call in on the telephone because in the close quarters of the broadcast booth, you get the feeling that you are all alone, yet there were probably a couple thousand people out there listening to the program.

We were discussing the problem of why so few voters actually go to the polls to vote and lamenting the fact that with only a 50 or 50 percent vote turnout and with not everybody even registered to vote we have a government that is being run by mandate of only possibly one-fourth of the people of the country.

We were going along great guns agreeing with each other all over the place when in comes a telephone call from a lady who thought that it was alright if people didn't vote. Her argument, which had much merit, was that you shouldn't vote if you don't know the issue or the man for whom you are voting. She pointed out that it was better not to vote at all than to vote blindly for something or someone that you don't know about. Well, it was hard to overcome her argument. The only

Student Swap Is Success

About 23 students from Seaside's Juan Cabrillo School spent a day recently attending classes at Monte Vista School in Monterey.

The trip was so successful that it is going to happen again. But next time, Monte Vista students will visit Juan Cabrillo.

The student exchange was worked out by Bill Hill, a teacher aid who operates a special, individualized math program at Juan Cabrillo and Gary Childs, teaching vice principal at Monte Vista.

Childs said the two men are discussing the possibility of more extended visits between children from the two schools.

Hill developed an Individualized Prescribed Instruction (IPI) program in math for Cabrillo School. He explained that he wanted to expose students in that program not only to the method another school used to teach math, but also to simply provide a chance for his students to observe a different school.

While at Monte Vista, the Cabrillo students sat in on regular classes, took part in math games and recess activities.

At first the students were somewhat reserved, but soon warmed up to active participation at the different school, Hill said.

By the end of the day, at least one Cabrillo student told Hill he wanted to stay longer at Monte Vista.

United Fund Reaches Half Its Goal

The United Fund campaign for 1971 has passed the $114,000 mark of a projected $230,000 goal, it was announced by drive chairman Robert L. Meester of Monterey.

"This puts us in the ballpark because we will soon receive a major contribution from the Combined Federal Campaign," Meester said. "However, our workers will still have to put forth a major effort in December to reach the goal."

The Combined Federal Campaign, recently concluded at Fort Ord, the Naval Postgraduate School and Defense Language Institute, raised $162,000, of which one-third is given locally to United Fund.

"The Army and Navy people really did a great job this year," Meester added, "and we're ever so thankful for their efforts."

The Combined Federal Campaign was conducted under the aegis of Maj. Gen. H. G. Moore, Fort Ord Commander, and project officers, Col. A. J. Sabel of the Army and Cmdr. Ernest Fischbein of the Navy.

Persons interested in contributing to United Fund, which supports 15 Peninsula agencies, may do so by contacting the UF office at 807 Cass St., Monterey, telephone 372-8026.

State Has Gift Idea

It's not too early to start thinking about Christmas and if there's an outdoorsman, boater, or camper on your holiday gift list, the State Department of Parks and Recreation has the perfect answer to your shopping problems—give a state park for Christmas.

The Department is again offering annual day-use permits, boat launching permits and off-season camping booklets that offer a considerable savings to anyone who regularly uses state park facilities.

The $10 day-use permit is good from now until the end of 1972 and may be used anytime at any state-operated park in lieu of regular day-use of parking fees. Normally, a visitor would pay a $1 day-use fee per vehicle or a 25 cent walk-in fee for each day of use. The permit is not good for camping or boat launching or at historic parks, monuments or museums where a separate entrance or tour fee is charged.

The $10 boat launching permit is good for same period as the day-use permit and may be used at all state-operated boat launching facilities.

The $10, ten-ticket camping booklet offers budget rates for camping during the off-season at most trailer, developed, or primitive campgrounds in the State Park System. Each ticket can be exchanged for a night's first-come, first-served camping in place of the normal $4, $3, or $1.50 fee normally charged.

Permits and camping booklets may be picked up at most state park or they may be purchased by visiting or by sending a $10 check or money order for each item wanted to the Reservation Office, State Department of Parks and Recreation, 1416 Ninth Street, Sacramento, 95814.

New Display At MPC

For the month of December, an exhibit of 12 framed reproductions from the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C., will be on display in the ASMPC Bookstore.

The exhibit, one of several traveling shows which will be seen at the bookstore through the year, is titled "Backgrounds to Modern Painting" and features works by Whistler, Renoir, Cezanne, Gauguin, Matisse, Picasso and other noted artists. The reproductions are lent to schools for display.

The exhibit is open to the public free of charge. The twelve paintings will be on display from December 5 through December 25. They illustrate important trends in painting during the last hundred years: Realism, Impressionism, Expressionism and the more abstract approaches of the present day.

Church Services

Divine protection is always at hand. This is a theme of a Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

"The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore," a Scriptural promise states.

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy explain why this is so. One citation states: "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Monterey, begin at 10:30 a.m. The public is invited to attend.

The United States, reports the National Automobile Club, imported 707,972 new passenger cars from West Germany in 1968.

Colonel William L. Webb Jr., who has been serving at Ft. Ord as deputy commanding officer since August, has been promoted to brigadier general.

Major General H. G. Moore, Ft. Ord's commanding general, pinned the stars signifying the rank on Genreal Webb's shoulders as Mrs. Webb looked on. The simple ceremony in the commanding general's office was followed by an Honor Guard Review on the Headquarters Parade Grounds.

General Webb, 46, was born in Mineral Wells, Texas. After attending Texas A & M College for two and a half years, he was appointed to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point where he was graduated in the Class of 1947. Residents Honored

Two Seaside residents, employed at the Army Combat Developments Experimentation Command at Fort Ord, were recently presented with Department of the Army official commendations for their outstanding performance of duty. They are Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Carl Grouch.

Mrs. Grouch, who serves as military personnel clerk (Awards and Decorations) in the Personnel Actions Section, Military Personnel Branch, Personnel and Administration Division, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Administration and Logistics of CDEC, was lauded for her technical competence, professionalism and devotion to the mission of her office.

Mrs. Jones, who is dictating machine transcriber at the Word Processing Center, Administrative Branch of the DCS Admin/Log, was complimented on her exceptional competence on her job and the significant clerical contributions made during her time in the position.

Presentations of these official commendations were made by CDEC's commanding general, Brigadier General Ray Ochs.

Birth Films
Will Be Shown

Two films, "Childbirth for the Joy of It" and "Story of a Birth" will be shown free of charge at the Monterey Public Library on tomorrow (Friday), at 8 p.m.

Both films show couples preparing themselves intellectually, emotionally and physically for the birth of their children. The actual deliveries are shown.

The film showing is presented by the Childbirth Education League of the Monterey Peninsula.

Following the films, there will be a discussion guided by CEL teachers.

The Childbirth Education League sponsors prenatal classes stressing "prepared childbirth."

Their belief is that the pain and discomfort attributed to childbirth are generally the result of fear and tension which in turn are the result of ignorance and misinformation. The CEL classes offer information, exercises and encouragement which prepare the couple for a dignified and unique experience.

Questions about the films or prenatal classes may be directed to Mrs. Herbert Schwartz at 659-4541 or Mrs. Wayne Ross at 372-5535.

HERE'S HOW - Private Richard E. Potter, Des Moines, Iowa, watches Corporal Mike C. Jones, Cedar City, Utah, check anti-freeze of diesel truck engine with hydrometer. Both soldiers are learning to be wheel vehicle mechanics and are in their second week of specialty training at Ford Ord West Coast Army training center.

answer we could come up with was that the voters needed more education on the issues and candidates, even though the press and radio and television try their best to present the facts. Maybe the people just don't listen or read. Maybe they get too much talk and not enough action from the candidates and are disenchanted. Maybe they don't believe what they hear - most of the time you can't blame them. Candidates rarely get to the "meat" of a subject, but skirt around it so as to not alienate anyone. Anyway, we didn't resolve the problem of why we have such a poor turnout at the polls, but there must be an answer.

We got a call from Supervisor Loren Smith correcting a statement I had made in regard to the supervisorial reapportionment. He claimed that he now represents about one-third of the city of Monterey and that under the new reapportionment he would represent about half of Monterey. I had said that I didn't think that he now represented very much of Monterey. Anyway, it was good to know that Loren was listening in.

My old buddy, Neil Gardner, publisher of the Pacific Grove Tribune, also called in to protest a statement he thought we had made about his old stomping grounds - "The Van Nuys News and Green Sheet." It turned out that he hadn't heard us right. Mel Vercoe, candidate for Congress against Burt Talcott, called in to tell his opinion of the voting problem we discussed early in the program. Mel's suggestion was that voters be allowed to send their voting slips, after they had voted, in with their income tax return and be given a credit on their federal income tax. An irate lady called in right away and said that she didn't think it was right that we should have to "bribe" people to make them vote. As I said earlier, it was an interesting experience. Dick Bragg does a good job and is quite fair in his presentation. All he is trying to do is get some interesting discussions going so as to let his listeners know what is going on. I would say that he is trying to "communicate."

Nowadays communication has taken on so many forms. We have satellites up in space which allow us to beam a radio message or a television picture around the globe instantaneously. We get football games, baseball games, news broadcasts and many other entertaining subjects, but have we been able to really communicate with the other peoples of the world? Have they been able to communicate with us. We don't believe half of what they say to us and they don't believe what we say to them. We each call it propaganda and as a result communication doesn't take place. We all seem to be so biased in our own smug opinions (prejudices) that we don't even listen most of the time to what might be a logical argument from anyone who might not agree with us. This not only takes place in international relations, but takes place every day in our own day to day lack of communication with our friends and neighbors. I know that in the last few months I have had to examine everything I say or do to make sure that it isn't being said or done from a biased viewpoint, no matter how slight. It hasn't been easy after over thirty years of being a liberal thinker. Liberals have labelled conservatives as prejudiced and of course, conservatives think all liberals are about to turn over the country to the communists. Of course neither of them is right. They each have their point of view and are entitled to express it, even if we think they are wrong. Two guideposts that I have had to use to keep myself in line are, "TO THINE OWNSELF BE TRUE" and "DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU."

Last weekend, we also had the pleasure of attending another of MPC's excellent productions - "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail" by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee. Ross Durfee did a superb job of directing and the lead part of Henry David Thoreau was magnificently handled by Stephen Bickford. I can't go into the entire production of cast but suffice it to say that we had a most enjoyable evening. The Play will be presented again this weekend at the Monterey Peninsula College Theatre. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and tickets can be obtained by calling the college. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

As I See It

By Mel Vercoe

What is the first thing you would do if you were the President?

What do you think about the idea of allowing 18 olds to drink like their elders?

Should marijuana be legalized? Do you think the present laws against use of marijuana are keeping anyone from using it?

Should tax money be used for campaign expenses to avoid the advantages enjoyed by wealthy candidates or parties?

Should a time limit be put on political campaigning? How could an incumbent be prevented from using his position for the purpose of campaigning during his whole term in office?

Can you think of one good way to get more people interested in voting in elections? Two? Three?

Should a guaranteed income with provisions for increases with the cost of living be established for our elderly? How much?

Should the U.S. send more arms to Israel? To India? To Pakistan?

Do you believe there is a future for NATO? For the United Nations? Should we try to save the United Nations?

Why do you think Pres. Nixon reversed his attitude toward China? Do you think it was the right thing to do? Why?

Should a murderer be excused from conviction or from the death penalty by virtue of being under the influence of drugs or liquor? By reason of insanity? Should the death penalty be abolished?

If something happened to Pres. Nixon while in office, do you think Mr. Agnew would be a good President? Why?

Do you think persons indicted for capital crimes should be tried where the crime was committed, or should changes of venue be permitted on grounds they could not receive a fair trial?

American tuna boats are being captured and fined if caught within a 200 mile limit by some South American countries. Our limit is twelve miles. Our government pays their fines. Do you think this is proper? What do you think should be done?

Veneral diseases are epidemic in California. Do you think our Governor was right in vetoing legislation that would have authorized veneral disease education in our schools?

If taxes have to be increased to meet costs, where should they be applied? Property? Gasoline? Sales? Other?

The most complete and logical set of answers to the above questions will win first prize of five dollars. Second prize, two dollars. Third prize, one dollar. Entries may be typed or written legibly, and must be at Seaside Post News-Sentinel office by December 16 and addressed to Mel Vercoe, who will judge entries and pay winners by mail by December 19. Winning answers will be published in this column. If preferred, send answers to Box 374, Monterey.

Cadillac Makes Improvements

Significant engineering improvements, distinctive styling refinements and an increased impact resisting bumper system add emphasis to the durability, safety and luxury of the 1972 Cadillac, according to George R. Elges, general manager of Cadillac Motor Car Division and vice president of General Motors.

In 1972, Cadillac's 70th Anniversary Year, the Division will offer nine models in three series—Calais, De Ville and Fleetwood.

"The overall dimension of the new Cadillacs are basically the same as last year except for overall length which has been increased slightly to provide for added bumper protection," Mr. Elges said.

"The 1972 front bumper impact capability has been increased on all Cadillacs to withstand a five mile-an-hour car-to-car situation," Mr. Elges said. "Bumper bars, vertical bumper guards will rubber impact strips, mountings and reinforced frame are standard on all Cadillacs.

"The new Cadillac impact resisting system significantly increases protection of the front end sheet metal, lights and other components," he noted. For added protection, horizontal rubber strips extending the full width of the bumper face are offered as an option. These strips, with a fine white bead, complement the horizontal motif and add to the styling newness.

In addition to the improved bumpers, the 1972 Cadillacs feature a new grille and lighting arrangement, for a new front end appearance.

The traditional Cadillac cross-hatch grille has horizontal accent bars, and appears to float within the bold new molding that frames the grille.

The new front end design highlights widely-spaced head lamps set into individual bezels. The parking lamp has been moved out of the vulnerable bumper area to a new location between the head lamps.

A chrome center hood molding has been added to all standard Cadillacs for 1972. In addition, the "V" emblem returns to the hood and rear deck lid on the De Ville and Calais models.

The side view of the car highlights the tubular shape of the body. A strong design line from the top of the front fender blends into the sculpture of the body and sweeps to the rear bumper.

In the rear the bumper is refined and incorporates an optional rubber impact strip across the width of the bumper face. The vertical tail lamps contain the stoplight, directional signal and tail-light with a winged crest on each lens.

A 472 cubic inch engine again will power all standard Cadillacs, with a 500 cubic inch engine featured on the Eldorado.

"The Eldorado for 1972 will be as exciting as even and feature the tailored and chiseled lines that set this luxury personal car apart from all other," Mr. Elges said. The vertical character of the fender ends in the front and rear and crimps profiles throughout the entire car highlight the Eldorado.

There is an all new grille for 1972 exclusive to the Eldorado with a vertical motif, and new chrome moldings over the grille and head lamps to add a subtle but distinctive change to the front end appearance.

Fresh new wheel discs feature finely tailored concentric rings which are open for efficient brake cooling. Rubber impact strips have been added to the vertical ends of the rear bumper as an option for added bumper bar protection.

A new option for the Eldorado convertible is a hard plastic boot cover which is convenient to install and provides a neater appearance.

There are 21 exterior colors offered in 1972, and 16 of them are new. There are 15 standard colors and 6 firemist.

"Cadillac interiors for 1972 are fitted with luxurious and tasteful appointments that contribute to the comfort and satisfaction of even the most discriminating owner," Mr. Elges said.

The instrument panel has the cluster controls angled toward the driver and located for maximum recognition, accessibility and convenience. Grille bars have been added to the defroster openings at the base of the front windshield on all models to prevent articles from dropping into the air duct.

The dual comfort seat has been extended to the Eldorado as an option for 1972.

To further enhance the outstanding rolling smoothness attained in 1971, additional improvements have been made in the frame, body reinforcements, shock absorbers and body mounts—all finely tuned to assure a softer and quieter ride.

More efficient starting is assured on the 1972 Cadillac engines as a result of a re-calibrated choke and carburetor. Driveability has been improved by the use of a speed controlled spark in place of the transmission controlled spark advance.

More Gas Stations Offer Savings For Self-Service

Self-service gas stations, taken for granted in California, are now spreading across the country.

They are prohibited, however, in 13 states, where they are usually barred under codes for handling flammable liquids.

Although they are legal in New York State, they are barred in New York City where they are considered fire hazards.

Chief Joseph F. Connor, assistant chief of the division of fire presentation in New York City, said his department "reads the thought" of every driver being permitted to handle a gasoline hose.

"They have no knowledge of the hazards. The spills would be excessive."

However, 35 self-service gas stations are in operation in the state, with some opening up in Connecticut. They are not permitted in the nearby states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

One self-service station opened last month in North Haven, Connecticut, a suburb of New Haven. Customers manning pumps saved themselves 2 cents a gallon under the regular prices.

Most seemed satisfied with the arrangement, but one motorist called it "a damned nuisance."

The proprietor of a gas station across the street was dubious about the new competition. "We'll see what happens when winter gets here," he said. He doubted that many drivers would be interested in serving themselves in cold or wet weather.

North Carolina is believed to be the state with the greatest number of self-service stations -- 900. The past boom has been concentrated in the western and southwestern areas of the country.

The National Petroleum News estimated in June that there were now 6,800 self-service stations of one kind or another in the United States, compared with 2,500 two years ago.

At some stations customers pay a cashier who mans the station. At others pumps are unmanned, the customers placing them in operation by inserting coins or dollar bills.

Datsun Makes Drastic Changes For 1972

"1972 Datsun retail prices reflect the increased import duty surcharge on automobiles of 2-1/2 percent and also slight increases passed on to the consumer due to increased manufacturing costs at the factory in Japan. These increases will affect the retail price of 1972 model Datsuns now on sale at dealers through out the U.S.," The preceding statement was issued by Yutaka Katayama, President of the Nissan Motor Corp. in U.S.A. (the Datsun distributor for the U.S.), to clarify the suggested retail price position of the 1972 model line of Datsun vehicles with respect to President Nixon's new economic program.

Katayama went on to explain that these increases were in complete accord with President Nixon's new program as explained by the Office of Emergency Preparedness. "Section 403 of Circular Number One issued by the O. E. P. indicates that while both the Nissan Motor Corp. in U.S.A. (the distributor) and its dealers must freeze their current markups, increased costs may be passed on to the purchaser," he stated. "We feel we are not only complying with the letter of the law but are meeting with the spirit of the program," Katayama added. "We in the U.S., have frozen our profit margins while the factory in Japan has neglected increased manufacturing costs with increased wholesale costs that will be passed on to the retail consumers."

While increased costs and import duty surcharges will mean retail price increases of from $133 to $256, the proposed repeal of the 7% excise tax on automobiles, including imports, would reduce these increases to very nominal net price increases ranging from $25 to $53," Katayama stated. He went on to point out that Datsun would definitely lose a great deal of its competitive price advantage as domestically manufactured automobiles would not have to reflect the 10% import surcharge. He cautioned that the proposed repeal of the excise tax may not apply to the Datsun Pickup Truck, because trucks are exempt, and that the suggested retail price of the 1972 Pickup would reflect an increase of $74.
